CHAPTER 5

The Mayor, Examination of City Books, Section 40, reads as follows:

Section 40 of Chapter 5 is amended to read as follows:

Section 40. The council and any officer or officers formally authorized by it shall have power to make investigations into the city's affairs, to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths and compel the production of books and papers. The council may at any time provide for an examination or audit of the accounts of any officer or department of the city government. At the beginning of each fiscal year the council shall employ the state comptroller or in the event the state comptroller's office is unable to conduct an audit, then a certified public accountant to audit all accounts of the city for the preceding fiscal year. Such auditor, so employed, shall have unlimited privileges of investigation, to examine under oath or otherwise all officers, clerks and employes of the city, who shall give all required information and assistance, and submit for examination all such books and papers relating to the business of the city as may be requested. Failure on the part of any city official or employe so to assist as requested shall be deemed to be a forfeiture and abandonment of his office.

A duplicate report of such audit shall be presented to the mayor and each councilman, and one copy shall be filed with the city clerk and one copy shall be filed in the public library of the city. The council shall provide for the payment of such audit.

As amended, it would read as follows:

Section 40. The council and any officer or officers formally authorized by it shall have power to make investigations into the city's affairs, to subpoens witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the production of books and papers.

The council may at any time provide for an examination or audit of the accounts of any officer or department of the city government. At the beginning of each fiscal year the council may employ the state comptroller or a public accountant to audit all accounts of the city for the preceding fiscal year. Such auditor, so employed, shall have unlimited privileges of investigation, to examine under oath or otherwise all officers, clerks and employes of the city, who shall give all required information and assistance, and submit for examination all such books and papers relating to the business of the city as may be requested. Failure on the part of any city official or employe so to assist as requested shall be deemed to be a forfeiture and abandonment of his office. Every third year at the expiration of the mayor's office, the council shall employ the state comptroller of the State of Minnesota to audit the city books.

A duplicate report of such audit shall be presented to the mayor and each councilman, and one copy shall be filed with the city clerk and one copy shall be filed in the public library of the city. The council shall provide for the payment of such audit. Section 77 of Chapter 9 as amended reads in part as follows:

The Council shall have no power to appropriate any monies from the general fund or otherwise or create any fund for contingent expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Mayor in the detection and prevention of crime in the City or to be used as an urgent necessity fund.

Said section shall be deleted, striken and amended to read as follows:

From the general fund the Council may in every year by resolution appropriate a sum not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars for contingent expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Mayor in the detection and prevention of crime in the City, or to be used as an urgent necessity fund.
