

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "Flag Day in Minnesota"

WHEREAS, our national flag is a symbol of the democracy in which we live and has served, throughout our country's history, as a valiant defender of the precious liberties our sons and daughters have died to preserve; and

WHEREAS, it is important, in these troubled times when many people throughout the world are suffering under conditions of misery and economic and spiritual want, that we who are blessed with God's abundance in the United States, hold high the values which make our enjoyment of life possible; and

WHEREAS, it is incumbent upon every man, woman and child in Minnesota and in the nation to reverence and hold in high esteem the emblem of the nation in which we live; and

WHEREAS, each year a day is set aside for the special honoring of our national flag;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the day of June 9, 1957, as and urge Minnesota citizens to display and honor the flag of the United States on this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven and of the state, the one hundredth.
