

A Proclamation for National Golf Day

- WHEREAS, golf is becoming more important to the people of our nation each day as a stimulating and health-giving sport; and
- WHEREAS, this year the Professional Golfers' Association of America is sponsoring a National Golf Day so that golfers of the entire nation can pit their individual scores against the national champion; and
- WHEREAS, the proceeds from this competition will go to numerous worthwhile golf projects to help make it possible for our people of our nation, as well as the State of Minnesota, to enjoy this game;

BEFORE ME, ROBERT W. J. GAVILLI, L. FROST, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the day of Saturday, June 8, 1957 as and urge all who are interested in golf to join in celebrating on the 8th day of June with the proceeds of this event.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 5th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven and of the state, the one hundredth.
