December 30, 1963

TO: GOVERNORS OF ALL STATES SIGNATORY TO THE
INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

We are enclosing the ratification document for the Interstate Compact on Juveniles from the State of Nebraska.

This official evidence of membership in the Compact should be filed in your state's archives with the ratification pages of the other signatory states which we have already sent to you. We will be sending you additional pages as new states join the Compact.

A copy of this letter is being sent to your State's Juvenile Compact Administrator so that he may add this new information to the list he already has of states participating in the Compact.

Sincerely,

William L. Frederick

HEADQUARTERS OFFICE

Chicago 37, Illinois

Hon. Orville L. Freeman
Governor of Minnesota
State Capitol
St. Paul, Minnesota

My dear Governor:

Thank you for sending us the completed signature pages for the Interstate Compact on Juveniles. They have been transmitted to the Governors of the other signatory states.

We are enclosing signature pages from the states of Arkansas, California, Colorado, Maine, Massachusetts, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia, and Washington. You will want to have these filed in your state's archives for evidential purposes along with the text of the Compact and the Minnesota signature page you retained when you sent the Minnesota documents to us.

Indiana and Wisconsin are also members of the Compact, but their enabling acts do not require execution by the Governor. Therefore no Indiana or Wisconsin signature pages are enclosed.

Sincerely,

B. E. Criegfield

TO: GOVERNORS OF ALL STATES SIGNATORY TO THE INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

We are enclosing the ratification document for the Interstate Compact on Juveniles from the State of Maryland.

This official evidence of membership in the Compact should be filed in your state's archives with the ratification pages of the other signatory states which we have already sent to you. We will be sending you additional pages as new states join the Compact.

In addition to ratifying the basic Compact, Maryland adopted the Optional Runaway Article and the Rendition Amendment. Ratification documents for these provisions are enclosed for Governors of states which have adopted them. Maryland also adopted the Out-of-State Confinement Amendment. No official exchange of ratification documents is necessary for this Amendment.

A copy of this letter is being sent to your State's Juvenile Compact Administrator so that he may add this new information to the list he already has of states participating in the Compact.

We would appreciate acknowledgment of receipt of this document.

Sincerely,

William L. Frederick

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, Robert C. Zimmerman, Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin and Keeper of the Great Seal thereof, do hereby certify that the following copy of Chapter 300 of the Wisconsin Laws of 1955, but omitting the text of Articles I through XV of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, has been compared by me with the original Enrolled Act on file in this department and that the same is a true copy thereof, and of the whole of such Act except the text of Articles I through XV of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
PUBLISHED
JUL - 2 1955
WISCONSIN

No. 583, A.7

CHAPTER 300, LAWS OF 1955

AN ACT

AN ACT to create 48.991 to 48.997 of the statutes, relating to an interstate compact on juveniles and conferring rule-making powers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 48.991 to 48.997 of the statutes are created to read:

48.991 INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES. The following compact, by and between the state of Wisconsin and any other state which has or shall hereafter ratify or legally join in the same, is ratified and approved:

The contracting states solemnly agree:

Here follow Articles I through XV of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles.

48.992 DEFINITIONS. As used in the interstate compact on juveniles, the following words and phrases have the following meanings as to this state:

(1) "Executive authority" means the compact administrator.

(2) "Appropriate court". (a) The "appropriate court" of this state to issue a requisition under Article IV of the compact is the juvenile court of the county of the petitioner's residence, or, if the petitioner is a child welfare agency, the juvenile court of the county where it has its principal office, or, if the petitioner is the state department of public welfare, any juvenile court in the state.

(b) The "appropriate court" of this state to receive a requisition under Article IV or V of the Compact is the juvenile court of the county where the juvenile is located.

48.993 JUVENILE COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR. (1) Pursuant to the interstate compact on juveniles, the governor is authorized to designate an officer or employe of the state department of public welfare to be the compact administrator, who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules to carry out more effectively the terms of the compact. He shall serve subject to the pleasure of the governor. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of compact administrator or in the case of his absence or disability, his functions shall be performed by the director of the division of corrections of the state department of public welfare, or other employe designated by the director of the department. The compact administrator is authorized to co-operate with all departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of this state and its political subdivisions in facilitating the proper administration of the compact or of any supplementary agreement entered into by this state thereunder.

(2) The compact administrator shall determine for this state whether to receive juvenile probationers and parolees of other states pursuant to Article VII of the interstate compact on juveniles and shall arrange for the supervision of each such probationer or parolee so received, either by the state department of public welfare or by a person appointed to perform supervision service for the juvenile court of the county where the juvenile is to reside, whichever is more convenient. Such persons shall in all such cases make periodic reports to the compact administrator regarding the conduct and progress of such juveniles.

48.994 SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS. The state department of public welfare is authorized to enter into supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to Article X of the interstate compact on juveniles. In the event that such supplementary agreement requires or contemplates the use of any institution or facility of this state or the provision of any service by this state, said supplementary agreement shall have no effect until approved by the department or agency under whose jurisdiction said institution or facility is operated or which shall be charged with the rendering of such service.

48.995 FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS. The expense of returning juveniles to this state pursuant to the interstate compact on juveniles shall be paid as follows:

(1) In the case of a runaway under Article IV, the court making the requisition shall inquire summarily regarding the financial ability of the petitioner to bear the expense and if it finds he is able to do so, shall order that he pay all such expenses; otherwise the court shall arrange for the transportation at the expense of the county and order that the county reimburse the person, if any, who returns the juvenile, for his actual and necessary expenses; and the court may order that the petitioner reimburse the county for so much of said expense as the court finds he is able to pay. If the petitioner fails, without good cause, or refuses to pay such sum, he may be proceeded against for contempt.

(2) In the case of an escapee or absconder under Article V or Article VI, if the juvenile is in the legal custody of the state department of public welfare it shall bear the expense of his return; otherwise the appropriate court shall, on petition of the person entitled to his custody or charged with his supervision, arrange for the transportation at the expense of the county and order that the county reimburse the person, if any, who returns the juvenile, for his actual and necessary expenses. In this subsection "appropriate court" means the juvenile court which adjudged the juvenile to be delinquent or, if the juvenile is under supervision for another state under Article VII of the compact, then the juvenile court of the county of the juvenile's residence during such supervision.

(3) In the case of a voluntary return of a runaway without requisition under Article VI, the person entitled to his legal custody shall pay the expense of transportation and the actual and necessary expenses of the person, if any, who returns such juvenile; but if he is financially unable to pay all the expenses he may petition the juvenile court of the county of the petitioner's residence for an order arranging for the transportation as provided in sub. (1). The court shall inquire summarily into the financial ability of the petitioner and, if it finds he is unable to bear any or all of the expense, the court shall arrange for such transportation at the expense of the county and shall order the county to reimburse the person, if any, who returns the juvenile, for his actual and necessary expenses. The court may order that the petitioner reimburse the county for so much of said expense as the court finds he is able to pay. If the petitioner fails, without good cause, or refuses to pay such sum, he may be proceeded against for contempt.

48.996 FEES. Any judge of this state who appoints counsel or a guardian ad litem pursuant to the provisions of the interstate compact on juveniles may, in his discretion, allow a reasonable fee to be paid by the county on order of the court.

48.997 RESPONSIBILITIES OF STATE DEPARTMENTS, AGENCIES AND OFFICERS. The courts, departments, agencies and officers of this state and its political subdivisions shall enforce the interstate compact on juveniles and shall do all things appropriate to the effectuation of its purposes which may be within their respective jurisdictions.

SECTION 2. This act shall be effective on passage and publication or upon enactment by Congress of an act or resolution consenting to the states entering into a compact such as is set out in SECTION 1 of this act, whichever is later.

ARTICLE I — Findings and Purposes

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The cooperation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to (1) cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to another, of nondelinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformative and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II — Existing Rights and Remedies

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III — Definitions

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the state party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV — Return of Runaways

(a) That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

(c) That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

The contracting states solemnly agree:

ARTICLE I — Findings and Purposes

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The cooperation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to (1) cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to another, of nondelinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformatory and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II — Existing Rights and Remedies

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III — Definitions

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV — Return of Runaways

(a) That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The cooperation to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of (1) cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, there, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to parent juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. The provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformatory and which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall require each party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II — Existing Rights and Remedies

The rights and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III — Definitions

The purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent under the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that adjudged him or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; "home" means any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV — Return of Runaways

The parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent and who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the court of the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the date of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition.

who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The cooperation of this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of their parents. (1) cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, on request, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to another, of juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of juveniles in the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. The provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformatory and educational principles which shall guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the duty of each party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II — Existing Rights and Remedies

The procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III — Definitions

As used in this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent under the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has jurisdiction or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "return" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states; "state" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "territory" means any territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; "place" means any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV — Return of Runaways

When a juvenile, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent runs away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the court of the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the date of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made shall determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the return of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether the juvenile is a minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state of his residence, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the date when the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event the juvenile is adjudged a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the demanding state when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, and the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact commission in the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such state. If a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority of the state to which the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person to arrest and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to justify the order. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer or person designated to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile to the officer or person designated to receive him. The judge, however, shall be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

When a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact is taken into custody by a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to warrant the return of the juvenile to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as may be necessary to return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of the demanding state when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the demanding state a criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act of delinquency, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or punishment, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duty of each state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, and upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further procedures as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

The state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation expenses.

As used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence or person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ive authority of the state where such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

ARTICLE VI — Voluntary Return Procedure

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV (a) or of Article V (a), may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII — Cooperative Supervision of Probationers and Parolees

(a) That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

(b) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

(c) That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

ARTICLE V — Return of Escapees and Absconders

(a) That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

ARTICLE VI — Voluntary Return Procedure

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, shall be returned to the state from which he escaped or absconded, upon the request of the appropriate authority of that state, without the necessity of a requisition.

ARTICLE V — Return of Escapees and Absconders

appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of the delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of the delinquency, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of the institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which placed such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency, and such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. If the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to be filed with the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition for the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to which the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to justify the issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he has first appeared with before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the delinquent juvenile, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority has appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for testing the legality of the proceeding.

Information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole or while in an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact shall not be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in any state party to this compact which is taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to this Article for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have such delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed such delinquent juvenile for an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the appropriate authority of the state of prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state of which he is a resident or from which he absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be provided by the laws of that state.

The state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the expenses of such return.

ARTICLE VI — Voluntary Return Procedure

Delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole or while in an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact shall not be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in any state party to this compact which is taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to this Article for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order pursuant to this Article. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he was removed or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be provided by the laws of that state.

The state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the expenses of such return.

ARTICLE VI - Voluntary Return Procedure

A delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact pursuant to Article IV (a) or of Article V (a), may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he was removed or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his parent or guardian, if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court of the state from which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. If such consent is duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state from which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile was removed and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to return such juvenile or delinquent juvenile to the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to the compact administrator a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide for the return of such juvenile or delinquent juvenile in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state from which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII - Cooperative Supervision of Probationers and Parolees

The judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall be permitted to take custody of such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile consents to such delinquent juvenile residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, the receiving state shall make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall furnish to the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and other information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

The receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and the sending state will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that apply to delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

In the event of a violation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the supervision of such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may, at the request of the receiving state, apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For such retaking, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile, no process shall be required. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state retakes a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in the receiving state or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in the sending state, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

ARTICLE VIII — Responsibility for Costs

(a) That the provisions of Articles IV(b), V(b) and VII (d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

(b) That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV(b), V(b) or VII(d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX — Detention Practices

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X — Supplementary Agreements

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and (7) make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

ARTICLE XI — Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

ARTICLE XII — Compact Administrators

That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII — Execution of Compact

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV — Renunciation

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' renunciation notice of the present Article.

ARTICLE XV — Severability

That the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Joseph L. Olson
Secretary of State

(d) That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

ARTICLE VIII — Responsibility for Costs

(a) That the provisions of Articles IV(b), V(b) and VII (d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

(b) That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV(b), V(b) or VII(d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX — Detention Practices

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X — Supplementary Agreements

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and (7) make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

ARTICLE XI — Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

...nding state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinreceiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

ARTICLE VIII — Responsibility for Costs

Provisions of Articles IV(b), V(b) and VII (d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.
Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof pursuant to Articles IV(b), V(b) or VII(d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX — Detention Practices

Whenever possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent be held or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with absolute persons.

ARTICLE X — Supplementary Agreements

Authorized administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary with other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquents where they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located in the sending state or in such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the nature and extent of care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the characteristics and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court order for being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be notified when sent to another state; and (7) make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

ARTICLE XI — Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid

Any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and visions of Articles IV(b), V(b) and VII (d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

This compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting claim, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof is liable pursuant to Articles IV(b), V(b) or VII(d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX — Detention Practices

Whenever possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent shall be detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with adult persons.

ARTICLE X — Supplementary Agreements

Authorized administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with one or more states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located in any state party to this compact. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing in the state to which he is sent; (3) provide that the state receiving the juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be the same in the receiving state as in the sending state; and (7) make provision for such other matters and details as shall be deemed equitable and just for the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

ARTICLE XI — Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid

States party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal government, or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for the purposes of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and restrictions of such donations, gifts and grants.

ARTICLE XII — Compact Administrators

Each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of the other states party to this compact, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII — Execution of Compact

This compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state party to this compact. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of which shall conform with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV — Renunciation

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until they are finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to the provisions of such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' notice provided in this present Article.

ARTICLE XV — Severability

If any provision of this compact shall be held to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability of any law, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact shall not be affected thereby. If any provision of this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

(Act No. 203, Public Acts of 1958, as last amended by Act No. 165, Public Acts of 1962, being Sections 3.701 to 3.706, Inclusive, Compiled Laws of 1948.)

STATE OF MINNESOTA
JUN 10 1963
JAMES L. HANNAH
Secretary of State

AN ACT providing for the joinder of this state in an interstate compact on juveniles; to provide the terms of the compact; and to prescribe the powers and duties of the department of social welfare and the jurisdiction of the probate courts.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN ENACT:

Section 1. The interstate compact on juveniles is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

The contracting states solemnly agree:

ARTICLE I -- Finding and Purposes

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The cooperation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to (1) cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole; (2) the return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded; (3) the return, from one state to another, of non-delinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and (4) additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the non-criminal reformatory and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II -- Existing Rights and Remedies

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III -- Definitions

That, for the purposes of this compact "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV -- Return of Runaways

(a) That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other forms of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identify of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

(c) That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V -- Return of Escapees and absconders

(a) That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

(b) That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

ARTICLE VI -- Voluntary Return Procedure

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV (a) or of Article V (a), may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad item, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of the counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII -- Cooperative Supervision of Probationers and Parolees

(a) That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or a parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

(b) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

(c) That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

(d) That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

ARTICLE VIII -- Responsibility for Costs

(a) That the provisions of Articles IV (b), V (b) and VII (d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

(b) That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV (b), V (b) or VII (d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX -- Detention Practices

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X -- Supplementary Agreements

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreement will improve facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and (7) makes provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

ARTICLE XI -- Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

ARTICLE XII -- Compact Administrators

That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII -- Execution of Compact

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV -- Renunciation

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by act of the legislature, by sending 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the 6 months' renunciation notice of the present article.

ARTICLE XV -- Severability

That the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Sec. 2. The state department of social welfare, hereinafter referred to as "the department", shall administer the state administrative functions under this act. Pursuant to Article XII of the interstate compact on juveniles, hereinafter referred to as "the compact", the governor shall designate an employee of the department, nominated by the social welfare commission for this purpose, to serve at the pleasure of the social welfare commission as the compact administrator, who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall recommend rules and regulations to the social welfare commission for promulgation to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of the compact. The department shall have the power and duty to cooperate with all other departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of this state and its subdivisions in facilitating the proper administration of the compact or of any supplementary agreement or agreements entered into by this state thereunder.

Sec. 3. The department is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to the compact. In the event that such supplementary agreement shall require or contemplate the use of any institution or facility of this state, said supplementary agreement shall have no force or effect until approved by the head of the department or agency under whose jurisdiction said institution or facility is operated or whose department or agency will be charged with the rendering of such service.

Sec. 4. All proceedings under this act shall be in the probate court, juvenile division, and to that end this act shall be considered supplementary to chapter 12A of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being sections 712A.1 to 712A.28 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, as amended. For the purpose of establishing jurisdiction under the compact when Michigan is the demanding state, the phrase "proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile" as used in the compact shall be deemed to refer to a proceeding under section 2 of chapter 12A of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being section 712A.2 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, following the authorization of the filing of a petition by the court; and the phrase "adjudged delinquent" shall be deemed to refer to children who are subject to the jurisdiction of the probate court, juvenile division under the provisions of subdivisions (a) or (d) of said section 2. The words "absconded", "escaped" or "runaway" shall not be deemed to apply to the case of a child who is in the custody of a parent in a distant state when there is pending in Michigan a suit for divorce or separate maintenance by the parents or, the parents having been divorced, the child is subject to a custody order issued by the circuit court granting the divorce. No demand shall be made by Michigan under this act for the return of any child 19 years of age or older.

Sec. 5. The department, subject to the approval of the controller, may make or arrange for any payments necessary to discharge any financial obligations imposed upon this state by the compact or by any supplementary agreement entered into thereunder. The department may use funds received from the federal government for child welfare services for administering state services under this act to the extent provided by the rules and regulations of the department. No court or administrative service of this state shall make any charge for any filing fee or for any copy or certified copy of any order which may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The cost for the return of juveniles to institutions or facilities operated by the department may be paid from the respective contractual services appropriation of such institution or facilities: Provided, That the court in demanding the return of a child shall determine whether a parent whose rights to the child have not been terminated is able to pay for the return of said child in whole or in part and to order that payment as reimbursement of the county or of the state institution which has paid for the return as provided in section 18 of chapter 12A of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being section 712A.18 of the Compiled Laws of 1948: And provided further, That the remainder of transportation expenses and other expenses incidental thereto of these children and all of the transportation and incidental expenses of other children, if not being returned to institutions or facilities operated by the department, shall be paid on order of the juvenile court in the same manner and from the same fund as if the child were in detention in the juvenile detention facility used by the court.

Sec. 6. The courts, departments, agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall enforce this compact and shall do all things appropriate to the effectuation of its purposes and intent which may be within their respective jurisdiction.
