

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A PROCLAMATION FOR BILL OF RIGHTS DAY

WHEREAS, December 15, 1957, marks the 166th anniversary of the adoption of the BILL of Rights - - the first 10 amendments to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the guarantees contained in the BILL of Rights are intended to protect and preserve the civil liberties and personal freedom of all Americans; and

WHEREAS, it is our right and duty to strive toward the fullest application of those freedoms for our neighbors as well as for ourselves in our daily lives;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim December 15, 1957 as in Minnesota and urge all citizens of the state to foster maintenance of the BILL of Rights.

BILL OF RIGHTS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven and of the state, the one-hundredth.
