DEPARTMENT OF STATE

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, Minnesota is a year-around sports playground, attractive to sports lovers in all corners of the year; and

WHEREAS, winter, which has just begun in Minnesota, opens up a host of sports and sports watching; and

WHEREAS, skiing is the fastest growing winter sport in Minnesota, with new skiing areas opening up throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, the development of the sport is of great economic value to those areas of the state where it is taking place; and

WHEREAS, an increasing number of Minnesotans are learning the joy of skiing;

I, JOSEPH L. ABRAMSON, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim January 6, 1957 as in Minnesota and urge all citizens to enjoy to the fullest extent winter in Minnesota by skiing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this fourth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven and of the state, the sixteenth.
