

A Proclamation For "University of Minnesota Week"

WHEREAS, it has become traditional for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Minnesota Alumni Association, to conduct each February a University of Minnesota week, with events in the Twin Cities and throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, historically the people of this state have demonstrated their size and unwavering faith in the primary importance of higher education; and

WHEREAS, in pursuance of that faith, the people of Minnesota through their elected representatives and by means of personal contributions have created and maintained, a University outstanding not only in the United States but also among the great universities of the world;

BE, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 23rd through March 2nd, 1953, as

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA WEEK

and urge our citizens to recognize the great benefits and advantages derived by persons in all walks of life from the existence of this distinguished institution and its parental contributions not only to knowledge but to the good life in this and other states.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed on this State Capitol this twenty-third day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight and of the state, the one hundredth.

ATTEST:

Orville L. Freeman
GOVERNOR

James L. Larson
SECRETARY OF STATE

STATE OF MINNESOTA
FEB 21 1953
James L. Larson
Secretary of State

13673