

Department of State

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

I Certify That, satisfactory evidence having been exhibited of the appointment of Adam Bonarski as Consul General of the Polish People's Republic at Washington, District of Columbia, for all the States and Territories of the United States, the President of the United States of America has ordered his recognition as such officer, declaring him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers, and privileges as are allowed to Consuls General by the law of Nations, and by the laws of the United States.

In Testimony Whereof, I, John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State of the United States of America, have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Seal of the Department of State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this sixth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty seven and the 182d year of the Independence of the United States of America.
