PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the future of the great State of Minnesota is entrusted to its young people; and

WHEREAS, on May 11, 1858, the State of Minnesota entered its second century of statehood, children were born who became symbols of our hope for peace and progress; and

WHEREAS, a committee has determined that Minnesota became a state at 5:17 P. M. on May 11, 1858, and our child known to that committee was born nearest that time,

BEY, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim and designate that child, Wayne Elton Catron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Catron

FIRST CITIZEN OF THE SECOND CENTURY OF MINNESOTA STATEHOOD

And in the name of the people of the great State of Minnesota, I confer upon him the honors of this state and charge him, and all young people, with the responsibility of upholding the traditions of the great State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this sixth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight and of the state, the one hundred first.

Orville L. Freeman
GOVERNOR
