A PROCLAMATION FOR SERBIAN DAY

WHEREAS, this year, 1958, marks the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Michael E. Pupin, the great scientist and scholar who came to this country in 1874 from his native land, Serbian and who distinguished himself both throughout this nation and the world during his long and productive career; and

WHEREAS, Michael Pupin gave encouragement and aid to his fellow Americans of Serbian descent, all of whom have made such substantial contributions to the growth and development of our American way of life; and

WHEREAS, the State of Minnesota in this year also celebrating its one hundredth year as a state;

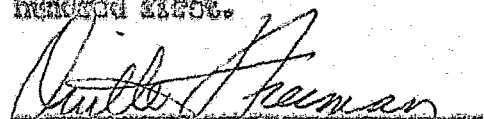

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Caville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim July 13, 1958 as and call upon all Minnesotans to recognize the leadership exerted by Michael E. Pupin during his lifetime and to pay tribute to the contributions made to Minnesota by our citizens of Serbian descent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight and of the state, the one hundred first.
