A PROCLAMATION FOR AVIATION WEEK

WHEREAS, aviation has played a signal part in the growth and development of the State of Minnesota during the 100 years just past, and in the years ahead it will continue to provide leadership and guidance for Minnesota's growth and prosperity; and

WHEREAS, aviation has contributed to the economic strength of this State and to its defense and will continue to do so; and

WHEREAS, the State wishes to congratulate the aviation industry and Military Air Services;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Freddie L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 1 through 7, 1958, as

AVIATION WEEK

and I invite the officers of the State to observe this week by attending the Twin Cities Centennial Air Fair, by visiting their local airports and by becoming better informed as to the significance of aviation's role in our State's progress.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-fourth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight and of the State, the one hundred third.

WITNESSETH:

Freddie L. Freeman
GOVERNOR

Joseph L. Donovan
SECRETARY OF STATE
