

A PROCLAMATION FOR "PUBLIC EMPLOYEES WEEK"

WHEREAS, city, county and state public employees have made an outstanding contribution to safety, health and general welfare in Minnesota; and

WHEREAS, our public employees are dedicated to the goal of making Minnesota a better place for all her citizens; and

WHEREAS, Minnesotans are sometimes unaware of the outstanding job being done by our public employees throughout the state and do not fully appreciate its value; and

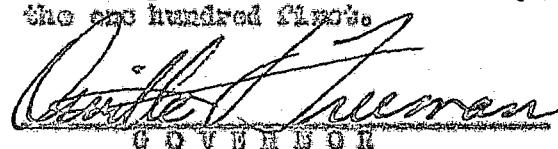

WHEREAS, public employees over the nation are devoting the first week of June to furthering good will and understanding between public employees and the citizens whom they serve;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 1 through June 7, 1969 as

"PUBLIC EMPLOYEES WEEK"

and call upon all citizens of Minnesota to recognize the work being done each day by these dedicated public employees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol the twentieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine and of the state, one hundred eighty.

Orville L. Freeman
GOVERNOR
