#1413-7

A PROCLAMATION FOR "MOTHER'S DAY"

WHEREAS, for the past half-century, Mother's Day has been observed by the American people on the second Sunday in May in tribute to the person each of us holds dear; and

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States, by resolution of May 8, 1914, has designated the second Sunday in May of each year as Mother's Day; and

WHEREAS, Mother's Day is a time in which we remember and honor our Mothers, both living and dead;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 10, 1959 as and urge that appropriate observances be held throughout the State, and further request that reverence be paid to the memory of Miss Anna Jarvis, the founder of Mother's Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine and of the state the one hundred first.

Orville L. Freeman
GOVERNOR
