

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

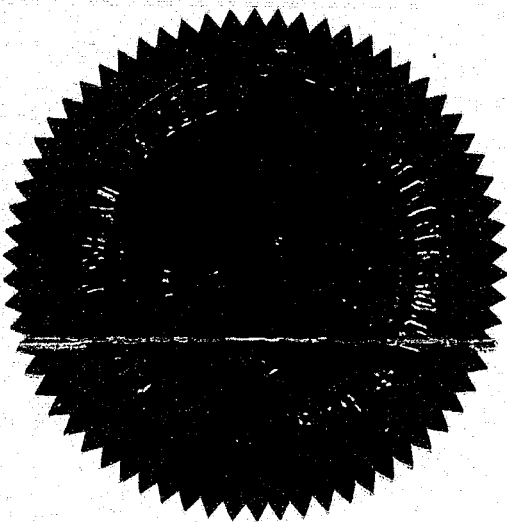

In accordance with well established custom, and in recognition of the important part the mothers of our children have in the development of the future citizens of our country and in the preservation of our sacred institutions, I, Winfield S. Hammond, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby designate

SUNDAY, May 9th,

as

MOTHERS' DAY,

and urge its observance by appropriate exercises to show our appreciation of what the mothers have done towards upbuilding the state and the nation.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State this 6th day of May, 1915.

Winfield S. Hammond Governor.
