

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

The good roads act of 1913 provides that the third Tuesday in June each year shall be observed as Good Roads Day. According to the provisions of that law, I, Winfield S. Hammond, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby designate

TUESDAY, JUNE 15, 1915,

GOOD ROADS DAY.

The people of the state are urged to contribute on that day liberally of their time, money and material towards the improvement of the public highways. It is desirable that public officials and taxpayers meet on that day to discuss practical methods of road building, to the end that the time and money expended for the betterment of our highways may be expended wisely and their improvements may be of a lasting character.

Attest:

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereto affixed
this 26th day of May, 1915.

Winfield S. Hammond

Governor.

Julius Schwall
Secretary of State.
