A PROCLAMATION FOR "NATIONAL RADIO MONTH"

WHEREAS, our radio stations ever in tune with our citizens and alert to their wishes have rendered service of great value by continually providing fine entertainment and dependable information; and

WHEREAS, our radio stations in tune with our communities and our state and sensitive to their needs and objectives have consistently volunteered their assistance in promotion of civic projects and placed their facilities at public disposal at times of crisis; and

WHEREAS, the radio industry generally in tune with our country and vitally concerned with its progress has contributed much to the economic, technological and cultural development of the United States and occupies a significant position in the maintenance of its welfare and national security;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim that the State of Minnesota will observe the month of May as and call upon all citizens to take note of the achievements of the radio broadcasting industry and the men and women associated with it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this nineteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty and of the state the one hundred
