

A PROCLAMATION FOR

"MINNESOTA AVIATION WEEK 1960"

WHEREAS, aviation plays an increasingly important role in the life of the people of the State of Minnesota; and,

WHEREAS, it has contributed to the economic strength of this State and to its defense; and,

WHEREAS, future years will witness outstanding growth of this State in which aviation will make significant contributions; and,

WHEREAS, the State wishes to congratulate the aviation industry and Military Air Services;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 11 through 18, 1960, as

"MINNESOTA AVIATION WEEK"

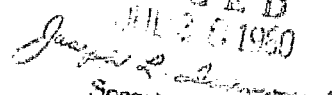

and I invite the citizens of the State to observe this week by attending the Twin Cities Air Fair, by visiting their local airports and by becoming better informed as to the significance of aviation's role in our State's progress;

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-eight day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty and of the State the one hundred third.
