

A PROCLAMATION

"EMERGENCIES DON'T WAIT WHEN"

WHEREAS, each year more than 4,000,000 Americans of all ages are killed or severely injured by accidents in the home; and,

WHEREAS, these fatalities may frequently be prevented with prompt attention and proper First-Aid treatment; and,

WHEREAS, it is the duty of every citizen to contribute to his own and family's safety, by being fully prepared to deal with these home accidents; and,

WHEREAS, these emergencies do not wait for the home to be prepared to meet them;

I, WINNIFORD, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 8, 1960 to be

"EMERGENCIES DON'T WAIT WHEN"

and respectfully urge all citizens of Minnesota not only to take note of the importance of First-Aid practices, but to replenish their supplies with essential items commonly used in First-Aid emergencies, disseminating and being able to administer First-Aid promptly can contribute to the well-being of every citizen of our State and of the Nation, as a whole.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this nineteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty and of the State the one hundred third.
