

PROCLAMATION

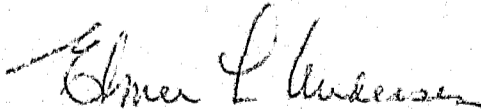

WHEREAS, by laws 1959, Chapter 696, there was proposed to the people of the State for their approval or rejection an amendment to Article VII, Section 1, of the Constitution of Minnesota, relating to the elective franchise. Such Section when amended to read as follows:

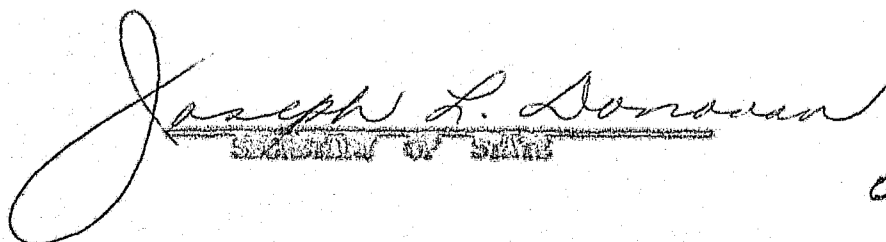

"Every person of the age of twenty-one years or more who has been a citizen of the United States for three months and who has resided in this state six months and in the precinct for thirty days next preceding an election shall be entitled to vote in that precinct, and the place of voting by one otherwise qualified who has changed his residence within thirty days preceding the election may be prescribed by law."

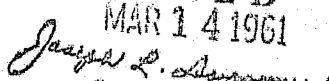

AND WHEREAS, it appears from the official returns of the votes cast at the election held on November 9, 1960, that the majority of the voters voting at the election voted for its adoption;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of the authority vested in me, and in compliance with law, do hereby publish and proclaim that said proposed amendment to Article VII, Section 1, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota has been ratified and adopted as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed this thirteenth day of March, 1961.
