

A PROCLAMATION FOR "ACCIDENT AND HEALTH PROTECTION WEEK"

WHEREAS, an invaluable resource of our State and Nation is being destroyed as a result of accident and sickness which takes a toll of human life, and

WHEREAS, the number of persons who die and are injured through sickness and accident has been steadily mounting, and

WHEREAS, the need exists to urge an increased public awareness of accident and health hazards,

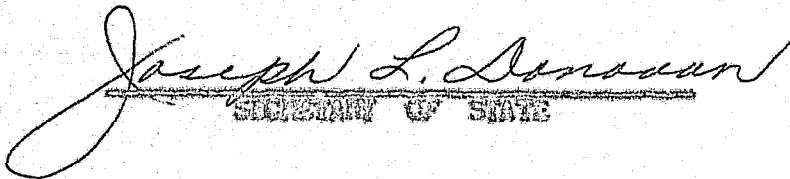

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 23 through April 29, 1961 as recognizing the important work of the insurance industry to protect human life, health and property.

"ACCIDENT AND HEALTH PROTECTION WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this second day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one and of our State the one hundred third.
