A PROCLAMATION FOR PUBLIC EMPLOYEES WEEK

- WHEREAS, city, county and state public employees have made outstanding contributions to the safety, health and general public welfare of our citizens, and
- WHEREAS, our public employees are dedicated to the task of making Minnesota a more habitable place in which to live for all of its citizens, and
- WHEREAS, the citizens of our state should be aware of the work being done by our public employees throughout all levels of government and should more fully appreciate its value, and
- WHEREAS, the public employees throughout the nation are devoting the week commencing June 5, 1961 to furthering good will and understanding between public employees and the citizens whom they serve,
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 5 through June 11, 1961 as

"PUBLIC EMPLOYEES WEEK"

and urge all citizens of Minnesota to recognize and pay tribute to the work being done by our dedicated public employees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capital this seventeenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one and of the state, the one hundred third.
