

A PROCLAMATION FOR "AVIATION WEEK"

WHEREAS, aviation plays an increasingly important role in the life of our citizens and has contributed to the economic strength of our state and to its defense, and

WHEREAS, future years will witness outstanding growth in the contribution made to the economy of our state by the aviation industry, and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we recognize and pay tribute to this industry for the many benefits derived from their services to the people of our state,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of August 14 through August 20, 1961 as in Minnesota and urge all of our citizens to observe this week by becoming better informed as to the significance of aviation's role in the continued welfare and economic progress of our state, and by attending the Eighth Annual Twin Cities Air Fair which will be held in connection with this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one and of the State, the one hundred fourth.
