A PROCLAMATION FOR "DOCTORS' DAY"

WHEREAS, in order to encourage our citizens to become more aware of the vital role physicians play in better and more healthful living, and

WHEREAS, the scientific and medical advances of the past decade are due in large measure to the dedicated and selfless work of research and practicing physicians, and

WHEREAS, October 18 has traditionally not only been "Doctors' Day" in honor of Saint Luke, the Physician,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim October 18, 1961 as in Minnesota and urge all citizens to honor and pay tribute to the dedication of our doctors, which has made possible the medical discoveries in the fields of treatment and diagnosis which we are privileged to enjoy today.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-second day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one, and of the state the one hundred fourth.
