Ref. 0112/3

April 30, 1962.

Dear Mr Donovan,

I regret to inform you that I shall be leaving for London on retirement on May 21st. Pending the arrival of my successor, Mr. Denis Roper, early in June, Mrs. Lilian Hopkins will be in charge of this consulate as Acting British Consul.

May I take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the kind help you have always given me while I have been in charge of this post. I also express the hope that you will extend to my successor the same warm welcome that you gave to me.

With best wishes,

Arming
