A PROCLAMATION FOR SAVINGS AND LOAN WEEK

WHEREAS, Minnesota Savings and Loan Associations constitute an important segment of the financial and business activities of the State, and provide for our citizens the vital services of thrift and home ownership; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota associations are currently making an excess of fifty per cent of all the home loans recorded, are entrusted with the savings of more than six hundred and fifty thousand thrifty people in an amount exceeding three-quarters of a billion dollars in eighty-three savings and loan associations throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, the savings and loan associations of Minnesota will assemble in Minneapolis for the forty-eighth annual convention of the Minnesota Savings and Loan League on July 8, 1962, commemorating twenty years of Savings and Loan League of Minnesota full-time activities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer L. Andersen, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of July 8 through July 14, 1962 as in Minnesota and invite the attention of all citizens to this observance.

"SAVINGS AND LOAN WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this second day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two and of the State, the one hundred fifth.
