PROCLAMATION

MINNESOTA MOTHER OF THE YEAR DAY

WHEREAS, the Minnesota mother is dedicated to preserving the sanctity of the home in order to contribute to the stability of society and our free way of life; and,

WHEREAS, she has made, and continues to make daily throughout her life, outstanding contributions and sacrifices so that her children may grow up a credit to the family and bring honor to their community; and,

WHEREAS, the "Mother of the Year" is a symbol of the tireless devotion, the unselfish guidance, and the unfailing loyalty that characterizes countless other mothers throughout our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 12, 1963, as in Minnesota and bring to the attention of the people of the state the abundant contributions made to the welfare of the state by devoted mothers, and I urge all citizens, on that day, to join in tribute to honor the tireless devotion with which mothers carry out the responsibilities entrusted to them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three and of the State, the one hundred fifth.
