PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the Future Farmers of America motto--"Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve"--establishes a direction of purpose for the future leaders of our nation's largest single industry, agriculture, and
- WHEREAS, the Future Farmers of America's main goal is to teach sound farming methods, develop leadership and promote good citizenship among its members, thereby encouraging them to participate in community affairs and to contribute significantly to the success and progress of the agricultural economy of our state and nation, and
- WHEREAS, this year marks the thirty-fourth anniversary of the Minnesota Association of the Future Farmers of America, an organization composed of 13,740 active members who are studying vocational agriculture in 285 secondary schools, and providing an excellent background of training for FFA boys planning to farm, enter agricultural college, or work in a wide variety of non-farm agricultural occupations.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvåg, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 15 through February 22 as and urge all citizens to be cognizant of the many contributions made to our state by the Future Farmers of America and to encourage the further development and growth of this organization for our farm youth.

"MINNESOTA FUTURE FARMER WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four and of the State the one hundred seventh.

Karl F. Rolvåg
