

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the history of America reveals the problems, struggles and accomplishments which the people of our country have made, and

WHEREAS, the opportunities and advantages that are ours today are the results of the efforts of our forefathers to build a nation, and

WHEREAS, an understanding of past events is essential to solving present problems and dealing successfully with future situations and conditions, and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Daughters of the American Revolution are urging greater attention to and emphasis upon American history,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Polvaaq, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim February, 1964, as

"AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH"

In Minnesota and I urge all citizens of this state to greater appreciation of the heritage that is ours and to greater awareness of how the lessons of the past can help solve problems of the present and of the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twentieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four and of the State the one hundred eighth.
