"Section 16. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Mayor, the Alderman at Large shall succeed to the office and he shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified. If at the time of such vacancy the office of Alderman at Large is also vacant, the Ward Alderman with the greatest seniority shall succeed to the office and he shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified. Seniority shall be based on continuous uninterrupted service as an Alderman. In the event two or more Aldermon have equal seniority, the Alderman representing the Ward with the lowest numerical designation shall be deemed the Senior Alderman.

"In the event of a vacancy in the office of Alderman at Large or Ward Alderman, a successor shall be appointed by the Common Council to hold office until the successor of such appointee is elected and qualified.

"Officers appointed by the Common Council shall receive a majority vote of all members to constitute an appointment, such vote to be had "via voice" on roll call.

"In the event the vacancy in the office of Mayor, Alderman at Large or Ward Alderman occurs during the first year of the term, the successor shall serve until the next annual election, at which the term for each such office shall be one year, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

"In the event vacancies exist in five or more of the offices of Mayor, Alderman at Large, or Ward Alderman, simultaneously, a special election shall be held within thirty (30) days to fill all vacancies. Ten (10) days notice shall be given by the clerk of said City of the time and place of holding the election and the officers to be elected by posting notice thereof in three (3) of the most public places in the City and by publishing the same in the official paper of the City, if such paper is then being published."

"Saction 19. Every person elected or appointed or who succeeds to any office under this charter, shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath of office, before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and file the same with the City Clerk. Each such person shall also, before entering upon the duties of his office, give to the City such bond, if any, as hereinafter required, or as may be required by the Common Council, the same to be approved by the Common Council and filed with the City Clerk." "Section 24. If an elective officer is not chosen at the time when such elective officer should be chosen, under the terms of this charter, the Common Council shall forthwith call a special election to fill the vacancy. Whenever a vacancy shall otherwise occur in any office, either elective by the people or appointive by the Common Council, except the office of Mayor, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment, by warrant of the Common Council, the appointee to hold his office until the next annual election, or appointment of officers, and until his successor is elected or appointed and qualified."

"Section 32. During the absence of the Mayor from the City, or in case of his disability for any reason to discharge the duties of his office, the Alderman at Large shall, for the time being, exercise all the powers and discharge all the duties of the Mayor. The Alderman at Large while so acting as Mayor shall be styled the "Acting Mayor" and his acts in that capacity shall have the same force and validity as if performed by the Mayor.

"During the absence of both the Mayor and the Alderman at Large from the City or in case of the disability for any reason of the person then discharging the duties of the office of Mayor, the senior ward alderman shall, for the time being, discharge all the duties of the office of Mayor. The Ward Alderman, while so acting as Mayor, shall be styled the "Acting Mayor" and his duties in that capacity shall have the same force and validity as if performed by the Mayor.

"In the event two or more Alderman have equal seniority, the Alderman representing the Ward with the lowest numerical designation shall be deemed Senior Alderman."

This amendment shall take effect as of the 11th day of March, 1964.

The foregoing proposed emendment to the Charter of the City of Rochester is hereby proposed to the people of said City by the Board of Freeholders thereof, pursuent to Minnesota Constitution, Article IV, Section 36, and Minnesota Statutes, 1953, Chapter 410, and is hereby delivered to the Mayor of said City in order that it may be submitted to the voters in accordance with the provisions of said Constitution and Statutes.

AMENDMENT

of the CHARTER of the

CITY OF ROCHESTER

Rochester, Minnesota

The Charter of the City of Rochester, adopted pursuant, to Minnesota Constitution, Article IV, Section 36, and Minnesota Laws, 1903, Chapter 236, and ratified August 22, 1904, as amended, is hereby amended so that the following shall be substituted for Section 275 thereof:

"Section 275. All contracts for commodities or service to be furnished or performed for the City, or any department thereof, involving an expenditure of more than Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) shall be made as in this chapter provided, and not otherwise. The words ' commodities" and "service" as used in this chapter, shall be construed to include all work, labor, materials, supplies or other property and all lighting and other service, and all local or public improvements, but shall not include the employment of City officers and employees and the setting of their salaries, and the employment of independent professional services, the purchase of real estate, and contracts of insurance. The word "contract" as used in this chapter, shall be construed to include every agreement, in writing or otherwise, executed or executory, by which any commodities, work, or service are to be furnished to or done for the City, and every transaction whereby any expenditure is made or incurred on the part of the City or any department or any officer thereof, except contracts for the employment of City officers and employees and the setting of their salaries, contracts for the employment of independent professional services, contracts for the purchase of real estate, and contracts of insurance.

"All action in this chapter required or authorized to be taken by the Common Council shall be by resolution or ordinance. If the proposed contract be in the hands of a Board, under this Charter, this Board shall take the same proceeding as herein provided for the Common Council and the Clerk or Secretary of such Board shall do those acts in relation to such contract as are provided by this chapter to be done by the City Clerk if the letting of the contract wore in the hands of the Common Council."
