PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, For more than half a century Mother's Day has been observed by the American people on the second Sunday in May as the day when special tribute may be paid to the person to whom we owe so much; and

WHEREAS, The setting aside of this date to honor American mothers has been established by action of the Congress of the United States by a resolution dated May 8, 1914; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that we pause to consider the tireless devotion with which mothers carry out the responsibilities entrusted to them.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 10, 1964, as in Minnesota and urge that appropriate observances be held in honor of this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four, and of the State the one hundred sixth.
