- WHEREAS, a secure community, a secure State and a secure Nation are but the embodiment of a secure people, and
- WHEREAS, the security of our people is contingent in great measure upon their personal financial stability which, in itself, is the product of sound habits of thrift, and
- WHEREAS, this stability is reflected in the willingness of the people to share in the wise management of our Nation's debt structure, and
- WHEREAS, all these factors - personal financial stability, the development of habits of thrift, the showing in America - are exemplified in the widespread purchase of United States Savings Bonds, and
- WHEREAS, a nationwide effort to focus even greater attention upon the role of Savings Bonds in building security for the individual and security for the Nation is about to be launched under the leadership of patriotic volunteers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, KARL F. SALVENDY, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim that the period from May 1 to June 4, 1964, be set aside as the time for and I do further urge that all of our citizens take advantage of this special occasion to re-examine the opportunity afforded them by United States Savings Bonds to build added security for themselves in a manner that contributes so importantly to the greater security of their Nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirtieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four and of the State, the one hundred sixth.
