

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the growing, processing and distribution of Sunflower based products are recognized as important present and future components of Minnesota's vast agricultural, manufacturing and business complex, and

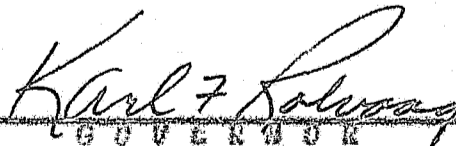

WHEREAS, the further improvement of Sunflower plant products and the intensified marketing thereof increasingly occupies the attention of this state's agricultural and marketing services along with the services of other public and private organizations,

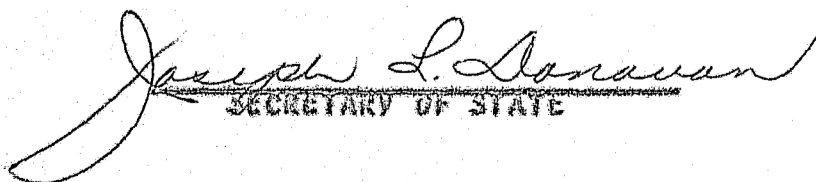

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the period of August 29 through September 7, 1964, coinciding and running concurrently with the Minnesota State Fair as, in Minnesota, for the avowed purpose of lending encouragement and publicity to those actively associated with this Minnesota industry, and further to help to acquaint the consuming public with the health attributes of sunflower products and the business community with their economic significance and potential.

"SUNNY SUNFLOWER WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirtieth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four, and of the State the one hundred seventh.
