PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Twin Cities Association of Purchasing Agents will be host to over 100 purchasing agents throughout the Third District, representing officers and chairmen from 14 associations in the districts which are located in Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, and Wisconsin, and

WHEREAS, purchasing agents in the U.S.A. help stabilize the economy, control the expenditures of approximately a quarter trillion dollars, and

WHEREAS, through a good program of inventory control, holding the price line, and value techniques, they help curb inflation, and

WHEREAS, the Third District is the largest district in the National Association of Purchasing Agents, with 14 associations in the district,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Roelvaag, Governor of the State of MINNESOTA, do hereby proclaim the week of August 2, 1964, as in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to note and understand the role the purchasing agent plays in our business procedures and in our economy.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed as the State Capitol this 2nd day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four, and of the State the one hundred seventh.
