- WHEREAS, the school lunch program is essentially a community effort, depending on the interest and support of every citizen; and
- WHEREAS, there are 1,295 public schools participating in the school lunch program in the State of Minnesota with an average daily school attendance of 659,000 children, high school, grade and under with a balanced plate lunch being served to approximately 368,000 of those children daily; and
- WHEREAS, more than 56 percent of our children are served by our school lunch program as compared with the national average of only 34 percent; and
- WHEREAS, we should pay tribute to all of our citizens who participated in the school lunch program in providing the daily noon meal for our youth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 11, 1964, as

"SCHOOL LUNCH WEEK"

In the State of Minnesota, and I urge all of our citizens to become aware of this community effort which is continued each day by our local citizens of our State for all our children.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four and of the State, the one hundred seventh.
