PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver was one of America's great and most highly respected and honored scientists, and

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver's achievements serve as a constant reminder and a reaffirmation of our belief in brotherhood among men of all races and creeds, and

WHEREAS, men and women of all faiths and races joining in commemorating the beautiful life and service of this great scientist and humanitarian is an exception example of the American ideal of brotherhood,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, January 5, 1965, as

"GEORGE WASHINGTON CARVER DAY"

In Minnesota, and urge all citizens to take note of the achievements and the contributions of this great American to our way of life and to the cause of brotherhood and understanding throughout the world.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-fifth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four and of the State, the one hundred seventh.

Karl F. Rolvaag
