

P R O C L A M A T I O N

- WHEREAS, the United States of America is the significant bulwark of the system of Free Enterprise in the world today and also has been the leader in initiating and developing that system, and
- WHEREAS, this system of Free Enterprise can exist only in a nation whose people are free from the regulations of a totalitarian form of government, and
- WHEREAS, this system of Free Enterprise allows an individual to own his own business or to work for a company with the possibility of owning a portion of that company and/or other companies, and
- WHEREAS, the people of the United States enjoy the highest standard of living in the world today as a direct result of this system of Free Enterprise, and
- WHEREAS, this Free Enterprise system has been achieved in a nation whose people have faith in God and dignity of the individual,
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Monday, October 5, 1964,

"FREE ENTERPRISE DAY" in Minnesota, and urge all our citizens to dedicate themselves to continue making this nation the leading example of the Free Enterprise System.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four, and of the State the one hundred seventh.
