

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Minnesota is justifiably proud of its local Chambers of Commerce, organizations which have done so much to promote and protect business and to develop civic programs designed to make our State and cities better places in which to work and live, and

WHEREAS, the Chambers of Commerce throughout Minnesota have not limited themselves to business programs. Those who make up the membership have been in the forefront of every worthwhile civic project undertaken by our State and communities,

WHEREAS, the Chambers of Commerce have consistently presented the business point of view on public questions at all levels of government enabling those in government to benefit by the counsel of the local Chambers when matters of common interest have been under discussion,

WHEREAS, our Chambers have been a strong defender of the free enterprise system which encourages individual initiative and develops the leadership which makes it possible to secure maximum benefits for all the citizens of Minnesota,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 4 - 10, 1965, as in Minnesota, and call upon all of our citizens, organizations and schools to recognize this special week and to join in its observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this second day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five and of the State, the one hundred seventh.
