Dear Mr. King:

This is to advise you that on March 9, 1965 the voters in the Village of Inver Grove and Town of Inver Grove voted to merge the two communities to form the new Village of Inver Grove Heights pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1965, Chapter 9.

The results of said election were filed pursuant to said Chapter 9 on March 11, 1965 and this is the effective date that the new Village came into existence. Also, on March 11th the land described in Section 4 of Chapter 9 became part of the City of South St. Paul.

Said Chapter also provided that the population figure was to be that as shown by the most recent estimate made by the Metropolitan Planning Commission for the area. This figure is 8,673.

Very truly yours,

GRANNIS & GRANNIS
