PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, ownership of a home is a dream realized by nearly two-thirds of the families of this state and of our nation -- a record equaled by few other countries in the world, and
- WHEREAS, realtors of this state have aided materially in the attainment of this enviable record and, through their pledge as individuals to uphold the rigid Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, have contributed toward public confidence in real estate ownership, and
- WHEREAS, these realtors are joining with thousands of their colleagues throughout the nation in celebrating Realtor Week, May 23-29, to extol the advantages of real property ownership as well as the security inherent in buying, selling, or leasing real property through a professional in real estate, and
- WHEREAS, the citizens of our state have benefited in countless ways from the efforts of realtors in civic affairs, for charitable causes, in educational activities, in the preservation of those buildings and sites which make up our historic heritage, and, most important, in the donation of their professional knowledge of real estate matters for the good of our communities and our state,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 23 to May 29, 1965, as in Minnesota and urge each citizen to join me in acknowledging the benefits we have received from the services, programs, and professional dedication offered us by the realtors of this state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eleventh day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five and of the State, the one hundred eighth.

Karl F. Rolvaag
