

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the production, processing and distribution of pork and pork products are recognized as an important segment of Minnesota's vast agricultural complex, and

WHEREAS, pork is important to the health of Minnesota's citizens, providing nutrients essential to properly balanced diets, and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota swine industry leads in the development of high quality lean and tender pork cuts, and

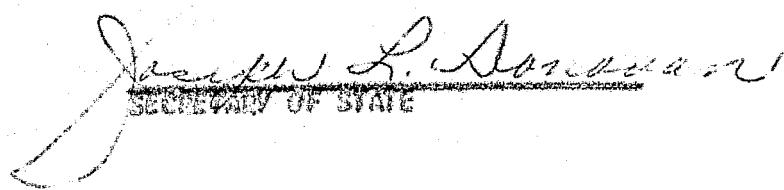

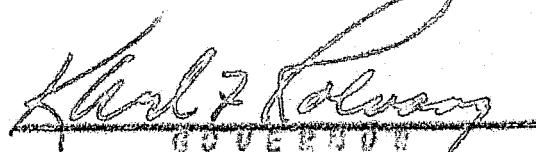

WHEREAS, pork is offered to the consumer in more than eighty different products, which can be enjoyed at any meal during the day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolavaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim January 11 - 18, 1968, as and do encourage all citizens of our great state to enjoy pork and pork products, and urge all civic and business organizations, processors, distributors, retailers and the news media to unite in promoting Minnesota-produced pork.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the State, the one hundred eighth.
