

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Sunday School Association of this state has requested the churches of all denominations and creeds to set aside November fourth, 1917, as an "International Go To Sunday School Day," for the purpose of holding special religious and patriotic exercises, and

WHEREAS, our people realize the need of encouraging in every possible way all those instrumentalities which assist in creating a religious and patriotic citizenship,

NOW THEREFORE, I, J.A.A. Burnquist, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby call the attention of our citizens to the purposes of this day with the hope that all who can will, on November fourth, 1917, encourage by their presence in the places of worship the teaching of religion, morality and patriotism.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed and have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of October, 1917, at the Capitol in the city of Saint Paul.

J.A.A. Burnquist
Governor.
