

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, General Casimir Pulaski served courageously and selflessly in the cause of human freedom and dignity during the American War for Independence and thereby enriched the legacy of every citizen of this nation, and

WHEREAS, the memory of his deeds and honor in a land far removed from his native Poland has served as a constant reminder and an inspiration to all Americans, but especially to those of Polish descent, and calls to mind the contributions that other distinguished citizens of Polish ancestry have made to this nation, and

WHEREAS, General Pulaski's valiantness, heroism, and striving for freedom for the oppressed peoples of his native land and all others throughout the world still serve as shining symbols to countless peoples who daily face adversity in the struggle for liberation of all mankind.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karl F. Rolvaag, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby designate October 11, 1966, as in Minnesota and I urge all citizens to pay tribute to the memory of this great leader in the fight for American Independence and freedom for all mankind.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the State, the one hundred ninth.
