

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS,

we believe that man was endowed by his Creator with certain inalienable rights, and

WHEREAS,

we believe that among these rights is that of freedom, and

WHEREAS,

the right of freedom flickers weakly in many parts of the world today, due to the misconception of those Inalienable Rights and the perversion of true values, and

our nation today remains the bulwark of the free way of life, and

WHEREAS,

Sertoma International, a civic service organization, has adopted an annual "Freedom Week" program to educate and reaffirm these principles of freedom in conjunction with the organization's motto, "Service to Mankind,"

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 19-25, 1967, as

"SERTOMA'S FREEDOM WEEK"

and call upon all citizens of the State of Minnesota to reaffirm their faith in the principles of the Declaration of Independence and to rededicate themselves to the Free Way of Life.

I WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this ninth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State the one hundred ninth.

Harold LeVander
