PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Theatre Company has provided Minnesota citizens with theatre productions that have received world-wide acclaim since 1963, and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Theatre Company has made an educational contribution by making it possible for over 200,000 high school students from throughout Minnesota to attend school performances; by producing and distributing theatre aids to libraries and classrooms in the state; by preparing and distributing educational films; and by conducting training sessions in schools and communities throughout Minnesota, and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Theatre Company is expanding its current season to include performances at the Crawford Livingston Theatre in St. Paul to serve that community with an entirely new repertoire, and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Theatre Company is creating an exciting theatrical climate in Minnesota that is significant and respected throughout the United States,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, April 16, 1967, as

"MINNESOTA THEATRE COMPANY DAY"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in the City of Saint Paul this thirteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred ninth.
