STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED
APR 21 1967
Joseph L. Donovan
Secretary of State

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, secretaries throughout the United States are shouldering vital responsibilities and performing important roles in commerce, industry and government, and are bringing to their positions a wider knowledge of world affairs and of the affairs of business, and
- WHEREAS, the American secretary is an integral part of the economy which has brought to the world "The American Way of Life" . . . free enterprise, freedom of choice, and the highest standards of living existing in today's troubled world, and
- WHEREAS, the secretaries already performing their duties with diligence are an example to others to enter this worthy profession, and it is essential that rightful recognition be given,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim April 23-29, 1967, as

"SECRETARIES' WEEK"

in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to observe this day accordingly.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in the City of Saint Paul this twenty-first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred ninth.
