PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, this State appreciates the efforts of the Minnesota Hampshire Swine Breeders' Association in bringing to Minnesota one of the greatest educational features that any swine breed has brought -- the National Hampshire Swine Type Conference, and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that encouragement be given to other Minnesota swine breeder associations to bring their National Type Conferences to Minnesota,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim July 24-30, 1967, as for the purpose of honoring the National Type Conference to be held in Albert Lea, Minnesota, on July 24 through July 26, and request the appropriate observance of this occasion.

"MINNESOTA HAMPSHIRE SWINE WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in the City of Saint Paul this sixteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.
