September 17, 1918.

Upon the request of Honorable F. E. Pearson, Superintendent of Banks, made to me in writing for the appointment of a Special Attorney to act as counsel in all matters relating to the liquidation of the Pequot State Bank of Pequot, Minnesota, and upon being satisfied that the public welfare will be promoted thereby, I do hereby appoint Messrs. Alderman & Clark as counsel for the Superintendent of Banks in all matters connected with the liquidation of the bank hereinbefore mentioned, and I do fix the compensation of said firm at the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) per day and expenses.

Attorney General.
