PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the State of Minnesota is deeply aware that its residents are dependent, for their health, comfort and standard of living, upon an abundant supply of safe, high quality water, and
- WHEREAS, the future economic and social growth of this state is directly related to the availability of dependable supplies of good water, and
- WHEREAS, the American Water Works Association, which is dedicated to advancing the knowledge of design, operation and management of water utilities throughout the United States and Canada, has asked that a special period be designated during which each water utility bring its message to the people, and
- WHEREAS, WILLING WATER, the symbol of public water service, is present to help tell the people of our state about the vital role played by this utility, and
- WHEREAS, the American Water Works Association has designated the week of August 13 to August 19 as a period during which special attention should be focused on the water utilities of the United States and Canada,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of August 13, 1967, as in Minnesota, and sincerely urge all citizens to join with me in developing a wider understanding of the contributions, the services, and the future needs of the American Water Works Association.

"WILLING WATER WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.

Harold LeVander
GOVERNOR
