

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has proclaimed the week of October 8-14, 1967, as Fire Prevention Week, and

WHEREAS, the people of Minnesota are vitally concerned with the protection of life and property from fire, and

WHEREAS, last year fires in Minnesota caused the death of 93 persons and injured 312 and resulted in property damage of $24,534,500.00, and

WHEREAS, experience has shown that effective community fire prevention programs can save lives and property and preserve our resources,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 8 - 14, 1967, as in Minnesota, and urge all State and local government officials to join with fire departments, schools, civic groups and public information agencies in promoting programs to eliminate this careless waste of life and property.

"FIRE PREVENTION WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-eighth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.
