

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

FILED
SEP 22 1967

Joseph L. Donovan
Secretary of State

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, innovation is the main-spring of the free enterprise system, and
- WHEREAS, the fullest utilization of human resources is in the broadest public interest of the State, Nation and its citizens, and
- WHEREAS, numerous people, due to personal needs, have not been able to participate as active, full-time members of the work forces and thereby contribute to the State's and Nation's progress, and
- WHEREAS, Robert B. Miller helped pioneer the temporary help services industry in 1947 through founding of Employers Overload Company, a Minnesota corporation, and
- WHEREAS, that company has expanded to now include branches throughout the Nation and in Canada, and
- WHEREAS, that company now provides employment for some 30,000 people in widely diversified occupations on temporary assignments, as well as a permanent staff of more than 250 men and women,

✓ NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby commend Employers Overload Company on its 20th Anniversary, and its founder-President, Robert B. Miller, and extend to them on behalf of the people of Minnesota our appreciation and respect for past contributions to the progress of Minnesota and our warmest wishes for a most successful future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-second day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.

Harold LeVander
GOVERNOR

Joseph L. Donovan
SECRETARY OF STATE

19373